An aerial photograph showing the coastline of Bournemouth, Christchurch, and Poole. The image captures a long stretch of sandy beach along the coast, with a dense urban area extending inland. The water is a deep blue, and the sky is clear and bright. The text 'Welcome to Bournemouth, Christchurch and Poole' is overlaid in white on the bottom left of the image.

Welcome to Bournemouth,
Christchurch and Poole

Bournemouth, Christchurch and Poole:
 2 hours' drive to London Heathrow
 2 hours 20 minutes' drive to Gatwick

Bournemouth bay

The beach huts in Bournemouth and Poole are available to rent all year round

Bournemouth beach stretches across seven miles of golden sands. Stroll, cycle or hop aboard the land train to see the best of it!

The Isle of Purbeck is located west of Bournemouth, with natural beauty spots such as Old Harry Rocks (pictured)

The sun setting over the stunning Poole Harbour

The pretty harbour town of Poole

Surfing is very popular amongst locals. With glistening sands and some of the safest beaches in the country, Bournemouth is the perfect place to experience the thrill of catching a wave!

Bournemouth's Coastal Activity Park offers lessons in many different water sports. Why not try one of the 30+ activities, such as surfing, kayaking or stand-up paddle boarding?

Bournemouth offers all the traditional seaside fun you'd expect to find as well as so much more

Why not try something unique like the first ever pier-to-beach zip wire?

Swim, sail or simply enjoy the fresh seafood at Poole Quay and Sandbanks Beach

Summer brings a whole spectacle of events to Poole Quay. Enjoy stunning weekly firework displays, live entertainment and the breathtaking views across the harbour

Every August, the award winning Bournemouth Air Festival offers one of the largest air displays in the country

Day and night Bournemouth Air Festival delights locals and visitors with four days of jaw-dropping stunts, incredible jets and display teams

The Tourist Information Centre and Smugglers Cove adventure golf course can be found on the Bournemouth Pier approach

The Lower Gardens in Bournemouth are only a five minute walk from the main shopping centre, the beach and the pier

The glorious Alum Chine Gardens: with the Blue Flag beach below, the gardens have become renowned for their award-winning facilities, striking design and stunning views

Bournemouth offers 2,000 acres of glorious gardens and parks just waiting to be explored all year round

One World by the Sea International Festival

Africa comes to Bournemouth and International Food and Drink Festivals

Bournemouth Square, located minutes away from the beach and Lower Gardens

Bournemouth is brimming with boutiques, designer brands and high street favourites to enjoy! When you've shopped 'til you've dropped, why not sit back and relax in one of the many eateries on the seafront?

Immerse yourself in the arts! Bournemouth offers a range of arts-focused events such as Bournemouth Arts by the Sea Festival (pictured, top left, top right and bottom left) and is home to the world-renowned Bournemouth Symphony Orchestra (bottom right)

Arts Bournemouth exists to support and develop the arts in Bournemouth and delivers the annual Bournemouth Arts by the Sea Festival

Bournemouth Christmas tree wonderland, Christmas market and ice skating rink

The neighbouring quayside town of Christchurch

Christchurch harbour, the Priory and Mudeford Spit. Mudeford is a harbourside and beach-side parish based on an ex-fishing village in the east of Christchurch, Dorset, England.

Built in 1901, the Russell-Cotes Museum was originally home to the Mayor of Bournemouth, Merton Russell-Cotes and his wife, Annie. The couple lived in East Cliff Hall as it was originally named, until they presented it as a gift to the people of Bournemouth along with the art collections within. The Russell-Cotes Museum boasts hundreds of unusual pieces of work, collected by Merton and Annie during their overseas expeditions.

With excellent public transport links, community safety networks and great educational resources, Bournemouth and Poole offer the perfect locations in which to study

Photograph by Sue Sieger

Whilst staying in Bournemouth, why not venture to one of the many local beauty spots, such as Old Harry Rocks (pictured, top left), the nearby Brownsea Island (bottom left) and Poole Harbour (right)

On Dorset's Jurassic Coast lies the 140 million year old limestone formation of Durdle Door. A popular visitor spot, the heritage site lies 20 miles west of Bournemouth and makes for the perfect day trip

Photograph by Andrew P M Wright

Photograph by Halo Photography

The Bournemouth vicinity has a great selection of historical sites for you to explore. Clockwise from top left: the birthplace of novelist and poet, Thomas Hardy, the ruins of Corfe Castle accessible via steam railway, traditional Tudor architecture in the nearby town of Sherborne and the Grade I listed Highcliffe Castle

The nearby New Forest is famed for its abundant wildlife. Learn about the animals that inhabit the English countryside and make the local area so special

